Candidate absence

Candidate absence policy

Overtyping here the centre's policy/process on how candidate absence from exams is dealt with and who is responsible for ensuring the policy/process is followed. It would be useful to have this in your exam policy so all involved are clear on the process to be followed in case of candidate absence. For example, are they chased up by members of centre staff; if so who, when etc.? How are persistent absentees from exams dealt with etc.?

“Advice: it is good practice for a centre to have a policy for late and absent candidates. Invigilators must be made aware of this policy.”

[ICE 14]

- ▶ Ensure that confirmed absent candidates are clearly marked as such on the attendance register and seating plan

Candidate late arrival policy

If a candidate is not in school at the start of an exam, a member of staff will ring home to find out why the pupil is absent. If necessary a member of staff will go and collect the pupil.

If a pupil arrives late to the exam, and as long as the security of the exam is not compromised, the pupil will be allowed to sit the exam and be given the full amount of time. They will be accompanied to the Exam Room by a member of staff. Any appropriate paperwork will be completed. A member of SLT will decide what to do about persistent late arrivals to exams.
